Investment Class Set

"Investment Securities for Women" is a new course to be offered at the YWCA. The course will be led by Thomas J. Leonard Jr., a registered representative with Powell, Johnson and Associates, Inc., a member firm of Pacific Coast Stock Exchange.

Purpose of this course is an attempt to close the gap left by the fact that women own the bulk of the securities in this country but most of the literature on the subject is written for men.

The class offers a basic knowledge of the stock market, slanting the information to the needs of women. A visit to the Pacific Coast Stock exchange is to be included. Classes will be held for five weeks on Tuesdays from 3 to 5 p.m. Information regarding registration and fee may be had by calling the Torrance YWCA.
